

TWO RECOGNIZED JURISDICTIONS

THERE ARE ONLY TWO RECOGNIZED JURISDICTIONS IN THE WORLD'S LAW

...AND SO TO BE PROTECTED FROM SATAN'S BEAST JURISDICTION, YOU MUST BE PROPERLY "NATURALIZED" INTO THE ONLY OTHER JURISDICTION THAT THE BEAST COURTS ARE FORCED TO RECOGNIZE, ADMITTING IT THEMSELVES HERE TODAY.

YOUR GOD MUST BE NAMED/IDENTIFIED AS THE "AUTHOR" (AUTHORITY) OVER JUST ONE LONG RESPECTED LAW DOCUMENT THAT WOULD OFFICIALLY CLAIM TO HAVE PROPER PROTECTIVE JURISDICTION OVER YOU AS YOUR GUARDIAN.

CAN THIS BE TRUE ?

Many people today do not immediately understand that there is a spiritual foundation under all law whereby all courts of law, meaning even any corrupt courts, are all quietly respectful of just one very special yet often unspoken alternate law jurisdiction that they don't want us to know much about, if at all.

This study will hope to show that after this author's decades of law research, I've been unable to see anything to the contrary that there are but two jurisdictions of authority over mankind that our many globally-affiliated national governments today are left to very quietly recognize as authentic jurisdictions. Those two are, first: Their own well cloaked corporate beast system jurisdiction that they have deviously morphed into creation all around us (and thereby selectively recognize, of course), and the other is the timeless and more powerful jurisdiction of law under the God of the Bible that they fear we are once again fast relearning of.

There are no other alternative jurisdictions outside of those two, whether seemingly real or imagined, and I mean none at all, although there are many subdivisions such as nations, states, counties, provinces. municipalities, languages, businesses, cultures, admiralty, maritime, common law, etc, etc, etc, or what we might call "departments" (if you will) all cleverly pigeon-holed inside today's one and only satanic "legal" jurisdiction as I hope to clearly show.

The satanic corporate system can also be officially applied to any individual, rendering him as a "person", either by default in that individual's full or partial rejection of the world's original Biblical jurisdiction and/or, by a process known as “offer and acceptance” taking him into any resulting adhesion contracts of the beast’s invention, thus lawfully negating even the most serious Bible law loyalist completely out of his otherwise sought or previous biblical purist status should they be too careless of their beastly ties and standing.

And inside that nearly infinite sub-compartmentalized satanic jurisdiction, there are so many numerous undefined levels of corruption that it makes even a law expert’s head spin as well, where all such judiciaries, courts, and societies are then all ultimately as a whole, generally opposite the morally sound jurisdiction of the God of the Bible. These endlessly multiplying corporate legal traps are all over the world on a vast satanic sided spectrum of corruption making up those who either fall into corruption somewhat innocently and unknowingly due to generationally decaying knowledge, or those who knowingly run headlong into such an evil system with a heartless internal intent of deceiving and abusing others in any such governed society.

Some may argue that only two jurisdictions is not the case in our world, and that some forms of “secular” or “natural man” jurisdiction(s) must somehow exist as a recognized “neutral ground” for them to feel they can be “expatriated” from the beast corporate jurisdiction, but this is also a “baked-in” part of the mirage, where I even asked AI to answer this question as well, where it was clearly not quite ready for such a question, or at least not yet filtered by its programmers to then avoid the truth of this particular question (because who would think to ask such a question this odd and precise anyway? Only some fanatical egghead like me, eh?), where this was my exact but simple question:

“How many spiritually recognized jurisdictions exist according to Black’s law dictionary?”

Well here was AI’s complete answer which I will gladly use as an unexpected but greatly welcomed summarized verification of all my own years of research into man’s many histories of law (having first studied the Bible and then again compared alongside their corporate law parameters over and over). So please make a mental or permanent note of this answer, as this is how they actually allowed it to be said as of 8/29/2026, as I suspect they may soon “adjust” this answer shortly after this book is published:

“Black's Law Dictionary does not define or count a specific number of "spiritually recognized jurisdictions." The provided search context contains definitions for the individual terms "jurisdiction" and "spiritual," as well as the term "church," but it does not offer a combined definition or a quantitative list for "spiritually recognized jurisdictions."

According to the available excerpts:

Jurisdiction is defined as the power and authority constitutionally conferred upon a court or judge to pronounce the sentence of the law or decide matters in controversy. Spiritual is listed as a definition entry in the dictionary, but no specific count or categorization of spiritual jurisdictions is provided in the text. The dictionary defines Church as a religious society founded by Jesus Christ, but this does not equate to a count of jurisdictions.

Therefore, based on the provided context, there is no specific number of spiritually recognized jurisdictions defined in Black's Law Dictionary."

I did a wondrous "AH HA !!" when reading this where AI itself is even specifically naming Jesus Christ and no other entity at all! They couldn't have made it any easier for me! But yes, even AI (in an obviously unprepared and thus un-censored response) even verifies that only ONE spiritual distinction is recognized outside of their own corporate law system, even literally naming that entity for me, backing up my own decades of study that there are only two jurisdictions recognized by their beast corporate courts.

But here I must emphasize that under their own beast corporate jurisdiction, they have an infinite number of "departments" or sub-classifications of status (e.g.: a 501c3 organization as opposed to a Limited Liability Corporation (LLC), etc), but all variations are contained in their corporate system nonetheless under just one overall jurisdictional umbrella, just as I have been saying for years, that any deviation from "Jesus" (Yeshua) and the literal biblical law book called the Bible, will automatically fall into satan's overall imitation law system by default, being the corporate system now more infamously known as "the beast system".

Therefore, all of the various examples we'll look at today are still largely governed under a commonly understood precept of law that essentially says, "Ignorance of the law is no excuse", whereby YHWH (the God of the Bible) then must examine the hearts of all who are involved with the beast corruptions, and according to YHWH's own laws, decide whether any such individuals still tied to the world's corrupt documents (Constitutions, corporate citizenship adhesion contracts, etc) had known full well of YHWH's much greater or "supreme" laws or not, because even if they had agreed to any such binding allegiances knowingly and willingly, or... had fallen into those corrupt ties by graduated or increasing generational ignorance in their society, they are both guilty of transgression against Biblical law and a rejection of it, although the punishments are dealt out proportionally per the heart's intents and level of compassion they may have had for those they had at any given point may have learned they were helping the beast to oppress.

So first, the verse that I think best describes this concept of "ignorance of the law is no excuse" seems to be what we see in Leviticus 5:17, which summarily states:

"And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity."

With more detail breaking it down in the preceding chapter we read:

Leviticus 4:13 (as a society or nation): "And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;"

Leviticus 4:27 (as an individual): "And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty;"

In general, this is why we see clear justification in the verse that permits the heavenly Father to then abandon any of His otherwise generous mercies from those who had first abandoned any or all knowledge of Him and His law:

Hosea 4:6: "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee;"

While these verses establish that ignorance does not absolve one of guilt or iniquity (iniquity is defined in Webster's 1828 dictionary as injustice; unrighteousness, a sin or crime or any act of injustice; rejection of YHWH's law), they also distinguish between sins committed in ignorance opposite those born of deliberate rebellion. We can see this in the very same "Jesus Christ jurisdiction" that AI had itself qualified for us (that a number of true subjects might be in today that, just as we will also show in more detail in Luke 12:47-48 below), judgment (punishment) will be lighter for those who acted without knowledge of their sin, nonetheless there has to be some degree of punishment for all, knowingly or not, who were still willfully living in sin, so as to be acting in all fairness to those who had otherwise "studied to shew themselves approved" and were thereafter found having left that beast system and were now faithfully in good jurisdictional standing under only Yeshua's blood bought status, as judgment must nonetheless be carried out upon all unsaved and lukewarm transgressors, that is, if YHWH is to be seen as a just judge for all who were actually true to His law of love.

Now under these two "knowing vs. unknowing" transgressors, we can also see a vast middle ground of the gradients between these two diverse scenarios, where the higher judiciary authorities in any of the more corrupt societies might be of the former type, knowing full well the spiritual ramifications of their own Creator (which is everyone's Creator, whether they want to accept this or not), but are outwardly ignoring those ramifications to hopefully hide their own corrupt deceptions, while their underlings might ignorantly be ever kept in such intended darkness of the corruption. All the while, as the unknowing transgressor is ever gullibly taught by those above him that their system is wonderful!" ...and even "divinely Inspired" (U.S. Constitution implied here), these satanic "legalers" must still find ways to sidestep this God's biblically laid out laws, using their so-promoted "divinely updated constitutional laws", by also cleverly rewriting history and doing their best to delicately balance the way they hide the actual knowledge of the power of this particular God from the masses, also keeping their lower court clerics less suspicious that they are indeed pawns and minor accomplices in their upper class judiciary criminal system. This may begin to sound complicated, and it certainly can be, but for the most part, we can then see why YHWH, for example, would be more merciful on those who were caught unawares of their associated assistance to this beast in such issues, while the instigators of any such corrupt system up top who knowingly are trying to work around YHWH's laws without seeing immediate punishment, are hoping to, well, "get away with it", at least in this life, that is (as I also hope to show today.)

Many clerics and paralegals in any beast society's judicial capacity who have accepted themselves to be servants of that judiciary are, by having been deceived into imagining that they work for a noble concept of guiding their society towards better ways of following "right or wrong", they then can also be lawfully found as guilty by YHWH in these two categories I mentioned above in a passage I will show momentarily.

So keep in mind that, whether knowing that YHWH is our Master and king or not, we are all expected to see Him as our true Master and lawgiver over and above all men ("Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29), where even if we are not shown these things by any claimed authorities in our world (parents, teachers, colleges, etc), we are still to seek such truth via the heart of flesh we were all given, to at least look into what is the most published book in all the world and then obediently follow our consciences in a sincere reading of that Bible as to what right or wrong truly is. If we are true to our own hearts, then according to any such heart of flesh in wholeheartedly wanting to know who the true Creator and Security for us really is, the Holy Spirit (as per John 16:13 and Acts 5:32) will then help us compare any such laws of man against an accurate copy of the Bible, where we're to then begin studying to shew ourselves approved unto YHWH, workmen that shall not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. Yeshua (Jesus) then gives us this example of how we are to be ready for the day that we are to meet this Creator that had left us to our own free will in the hopes that we would not only find His truth, but then admire it so much that we would then do our diligent best to help in the sharing of this truth of what we call here His "government built on love". Will we be found as faithful servants in such light on that day? Consider this:

Luke 12:43 Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

12:44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

12:45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

12:46 The Lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

12:47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

12:48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

In laymen's terms, we can even see this two part separation having its roots in actual biblical law, where there are two classifications of sinful actions that determine any man's punishments (among those not found as responsible servants in helping to encourage/build a loving system of governance for his fellow man).

And there are many reasons that the more keenly alert of us can easily imagine why satan would have worked so hard over all these centuries trying to pull men away from YHWH's "Book of the Law" (as both the early Hebrews and early American Puritans had referred to the Scriptures), but to offer some comfort for those who may have innocently fallen into having dangerously become disrespectful in having rejected that God and His Bible in his heart (and perhaps only by a mere generationally increased ignorance) please know that getting out of satan's jurisdiction altogether once we find this reality, is the real answer in avoiding the coming judgment day penalties (see the actual 2nd Commandment in Exodus 20:5,6). But for others of us who do not "come out from among them" (at least not right away, should He arrive in the meantime) might at least be treated with lighter punishment for being found in that jurisdiction ignorantly, rather than those who knowingly joined and/or stayed in any such corrupt beast law system and its programs having known the oppressive parts that they themselves had been tricked into playing in that system's intentional design to use one another to wrongfully attain such ill gotten gain for the beast overlords from their neighbors and countrymen.

Those at the top of this corrupt judiciary who are intentionally deceiving their societal masses are the most punished, but the lower courts that might not be (shall we say) "higher ranking members" of their secret society cabals, who are merely the deceived lap dogs for this system, will receive less stripes, but stripes they all will receive nonetheless, if they are not covered of those sins by the blood of the Savior and living under YHWH's genuine jurisdiction in good standing.

I said all of this as a preface to why we are not going to hear these actual statements I am making, to be confirmed by either the upper secret society judiciary or any lower court clerics, where there exists a realm of respect for only one other jurisdiction other than their own, because they will never admit to this being an actual statement of fact that all such "beast" or "corporate" court criminals like we have today, are terrifyingly fearful of only one other jurisdiction that they know is backed by an enforcement power greater than what they have.

Pharaoh learned a fear of this God's jurisdictional power the hard way, first with the plagues, then his total defeat at the Red Sea. Other men in high places went through similar setbacks over the centuries since, having learned the hard way that the more they push their luck in trying to force people into becoming slaves for them, the more they know that YHWH will then come down on them in a protection of any of His true people that might be present among them.

And so it came to pass that these wicked began to do as the serpent in the garden in literally tricking people into joining them in their offered pie-in-the-sky “benefits” of their oppressive systems. The Father will not initially touch these oppressors for having taken such “agreed-to servants” in this manner, as the people had all been duly warned in Scripture, while having also been given a free will and had willfully accepted those beast affiliation offers of their own choosing. ...yet having been found joined unto such an oppressive system by willful covenants that made them accomplices to this mass global enslavement that we have today, we can now see and understand how it is that many are now being punished in having been found “joined unto them” as YHWH is now allowing the beast to take out a world of people who are in contractual agreement with this criminal cabal either near the top or those who were even just supporting it in some small way, as they are all “satan’s property” as we will also show shortly:

Isaiah 13:15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

And so yes, the reason that YHWH will not punish anyone Himself in such light right away is because He Himself had duly warned His world of people through His Bible to “be ye not deceived”, “Watch for wolves in sheep’s clothing”, “Be ye not unequally yoked”, “let no men entice thee in sharing any evil purse”, and many other verses that a very patient God had Himself even warned us not to be caught up in ourselves, where our ties then become our punishment (Prov 1:31; Ezek 9:10, et al.). But today I estimate that at least 90-95% of our planet are in one way or another “wondering after the beast”, and thus YHWH has only a rare few of us that had responsibly “come out from among them to be separate” to then gain a deeper Holy Spirit’s guidance to work towards showing the rest of the world just how fast we are sinking in our own self stepped quicksand of peril by being in this massively orchestrated system of beast oppression.

We have gone over many messages that were taught in this ministry showing just how serious YHWH is about not being tied to this beast system as every other time in Biblical history, where the heavenly Father has shown time and again that He will not tolerate us oppressing one another. Idolatry (man elevating himself above YHWH) is one of the Father’s greatest pet peeves, because it is always such glory hound egotists that eventually cause the most heartless acts of cruelty against the innocent.

These satanic minded souls up top are never able to see anything but their own lusts for control and ill gotten gain over others, and will always do everything in their power to find ways to make the rest of us slaves to them, albeit fearfully knowing that they have to always work around just that one jurisdictionally recorded law document that they so dearly resent ... being the Bible.

They would have forced us by now, but they cannot yet do so to any real extremes, as they do not have enough of us willfully in their jurisdiction just yet. They can only mistreat or harm those who are in their own jurisdiction. So keep in mind that they know that if they try to force an entire world of us as if they already had all of us in their willful covenants, that their “gig would be up” just as it was for Pharaoh. So they have to keep trying to deceive “even the very elect” until they do hope to technically have us in their covenants. But they are thankfully very fearful of touching YHWH’s truly loyal and anointed as Scripture also states, as they know that doom would surely soon follow. But even that part is starting to become a reality against them because they are starting to also vilify YHWH’s most accurate serious voices, which YHWH also does not like either. So...

As we can now perhaps better see why I then say that the beast system only recognizes two jurisdictions, the first being their own multi-layered beast jurisdiction, and the other being (even AI admitted here today) as none other than only that of “Jesus Christ” (Yeshua ha Messhiach in the Hebrew), under His Father’s laws and jurisdiction, this is due to how the evil side has learned to not do anything that will gain them many stripes even in this life, shortening their twisted lives of satanic pleasure that we have all seen by now, committing the most heinous crimes against man that I believe the world has ever seen (and the worst is yet to come until enough of us wake up to all of this and actually begin the reformation process to some degree). But they have now gained (enslaved) roughly 90-95 percent of an unsuspecting world, and largely through the yoke of temptation and deception (not force), not wanting to end up like Pharaoh.

So now perhaps we can get back to the topic at hand, where we can hopefully better see as a foundation to work upon now, how these Satanists truly only recognize two basic jurisdictions.

I have seen many unfortunate people of the past try to present themselves as free men and women without at the same time fully vacating their own previous covenants of the beast system, and/or in not having officially become genuine representatives of YHWH’s literal laws standing under only the authority of the Bible and its lawful jurisdiction, where they fail both in the courts and in any victorious blessings that could have otherwise come of the heavenly Father.

Such people who have recently only half-heartedly tried to leave the system were still hounded or even fatally punished by the beast for such actions, because they were seen as “their own beast system slaves rebelling as dissenters”. They unwisely wanted out of the evil parts while yet still wanting the benefit parts of that same evil system. This does not work folks. I have personally seen court cases where the courts have all they can do but to laugh in such “slaves” faces. People demand to be let free of the beast system while still having one or more binding covenants left tying them to the beast for the benefits. They have not fully left the beast even if while having claimed a distinctly official new ownership by the God of the Bible as one’s new jurisdictional sworn status (having been “bought back with a price” (Yeshua’s blood), 1st Corinthians 6:20).

I have also seen the opposite, where folks were totally out of the system (technically) but were refusing to claim YHWH and His jurisdiction as their new jurisdiction, thus, by default again, satan and his agents knew these “persons” were still “their property”.

Such folks of either instance are not technically out of the beast’s jurisdictional custody or “ownership”. One must both be out of the system and officially claiming to have been “born again” into YHWH’s kingdom, as in “bought back with a price”, or “naturalized” as the beast words it at their end:

Naturalization is defined globally as the process by which a person acquires nationality after birth and becomes entitled to the privileges of citizenship, or the act of making someone a legal citizen of a country they were not born in.

In general, the Cambridge Dictionary defines naturalize as the verb meaning to make someone a legal citizen of a country that they were not born in (or first recognized as a subject in).

In the beast’s own “legal” terms, Black’s Law Dictionary specifies that naturalization is the process by which a “person” (those who know the also hidden value of this word “person”, please take note) acquires nationality after birth and becomes entitled to the privileges of U.S. citizenship (and to cover the word “privileges” [or benefits] and how the receiving of such then ties the ignorant into binding contractual beast obligations, see our video “How America was tricked into becoming slaves to satan”). Such “willfully indentured servitude” (contracted) “persons” (slaves) are then governed by statutes such as 8 U.S.C.A. No. 1401 et seq. And also please note that the U.S. here is essentially the “headquarters” of the global corporate beast system out of their Washington, D.C. “city state” Capital, being the emergent head of the second beast that rose up out of the sea (out of the world’s peoples); rose up out of the multitudes of those fleeing oppressive Europe (the first beast) to be free in “America” where they were soon deceived right back into becoming “citizens” of the “United States of America”. The [U.S.A.] being the seductively created title of their newly inserted imitation corporate kingdom, designed to replace the early Puritan “America” which with even more validation for us here today is still officially valid and recognized under Jesus Christ (Yeshua ha Messhiach), Son of YHWH, the living God of the Bible.

And lastly, if we go back to their own earlier definitives, the 1910 edition of Black’s Law Dictionary defined a naturalized citizen as one who, being an alien by birth, has received citizenship under the laws of the state or nation he was preferring to be newly and officially recognized under. ...”born again”(?)

Any yet spiritually or lawfully ignorant litigant, standing in any either imagined secular way, or trying to dwell between the two jurisdictions described here today, or have not officially allowed the God of the Bible to then “buy them back”, not wanting to admit to themselves the reality of the Bible’s supreme lawful jurisprudence over all of mankind, having not truly “switched sides” in any such official capacity, but yet might himself be hopefully (albeit ignorantly) claiming that the beast court has no jurisdiction over him, will always find himself and his claimed new status to be at least ignored by the beast systems judicial courts. He will then be ever kept in that frustrating “litigation vortex” we have spoken of many times in the past here. ...satan will not tell these people anything that they need to know, (even though their own Latin term “sua sponte” states that judges are required to inform uneducated litigants of aspects they may not be aware of.

The Latin term is sua sponte, which translates to "of one's own accord" or "on its own motion." It refers to a judge taking independent action, such as raising a legal issue or dismissing a case, without being prompted or requested by any party in any law dispute.

Judges are specifically required to act sua sponte in certain critical situations to ensure the integrity of the judicial process, most notably when addressing subject matter jurisdiction. Since parties cannot waive subject-matter jurisdiction, a judge must independently verify that the court has the authority to hear the case, even if neither side raises the issue. For most other legal matters, sua sponte action is discretionary, allowing the judge to act voluntarily to correct errors, ensure fairness, or address procedural oversights that the litigants may have missed.

But again, satan does not like to let his slaves go so easily, and even though their own Latin term “sua sponte” was once better known in our history, the more corrupt judges today will just simply and conveniently forget this term and their obligation under it and just intentionally keep any unfavorable litigants in the dark, today always siding with whatever best will distract the litigant from the truth, rather than steer them to it, especially avoiding the courtesy of alerting any parties of the biblical jurisdiction aspects that might be slowly today being as thoroughly hidden and avoided as possible.

And so the better paid judges are well trained by this deceptive system to not tell the litigant that there was a remaining loophole or problem that is yet keeping them in their beast jurisdiction, where if they have not been shown to have completely abandoned all of their beast ties along with also positively identifying the only other named jurisdiction as their new standing in YHWH’s genuine jurisdictional kingdom, being represented by the name “YHWH”/“Jesus Christ” (or Yeshua ha Meshiach in the more accurate Hebrew spelling), they will never be “let go”, much as Pharaoh was not letting the people go in Moses’ time.

I would caution such folks who are yet unwilling to accept the spiritual realm of YHWH, the God of the Bible, that as we see evidence of it above, such a realm does exist and the court systems have long quietly known about this realm with great respect and fear of it, having then studied to find as many ways as possible to work around this realm to the beast’s benefit. In fact the higher judges today know this realm with as much caution in entering such cases as they would in entering any earthbound bar association delicate cases, and perhaps even more so depending upon the level of importance to the case. This is also why we might see judges in small courts recusing themselves and being replaced by more senior or experienced judges, the less aware magistrate stepping aside to make way for a judge who is more adept at handling such cases where the court finds that the litigant is more aware of his or her true kingdom specifics, as the less experienced judge might not handle it very well and blow their cover in some ways (to put it in plain English).

Nonetheless, the existence of this spiritual contest which is always only between just two parties, being YHWH, the God of the Bible, and the satanists’ deity named either satan or lucifer, is well known in the carefully kept secret realm of any of their many corporate judiciary agents, where the many layers of deceptive “legalese” language trickery then enters the picture in a way that could be so massively complex in whatever way any such court might then abuse such a case, that I will not attempt to give any examples of it here, but suffice it to say that once it is discovered that the litigant is not noticeably aware of any of these deceptions to then likely force the beast system’s abandonment of the case, the court will then continue to treat the litigant as if he or she is still fully under the jurisdiction of their satanic corporate system. Again, all initially based on Revelation 3:16 (“So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.”) which then becomes the key area that the courts are using to their advantage as their own rule of thumb to stay well safeguarded from YHWH Himself enforcing the case, should they disregard a genuine biblical subject’s true status. They must always make sure that they can contractually show that any litigant is still in their binding contracts of one form of “privilege”, “benefit”, or another, and thereby will be seen by “Jesus Christ” Himself as being “lukewarm”. The Satanists in this regard will always walk carefully along these lines to keep YHWH from coming down on them, had the beast court stepped outside YHWH’s lawfully stated claims of who is truly His servant. They must not harm or detain any of YHWH’s genuine loyal subjects.

The verse that best describes the command not to hurt YHWH's anointed or their inheritance is Psalm 105:15, which states: "Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm."

This verse is part of a passage describing YHWH's protection of the patriarchs (Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) as they wandered toward their covenanted inheritance, noting in the preceding verse that He "reproved kings for their sakes" to ensure no one oppressed them or even delayed them from their “pursuit of happiness”(wink, wink) in seeking their biblically and proper jurisdictionally afforded inheritance. This same command is also quoted in 1 Chronicles 16:22 within the context of the everlasting covenant YHWH made with original Israel.

So if we want to truly be, not just protected, but also left alone to pursue the kingdom and happiness we have all been promised when properly standing in YHWH’s true jurisdictional standing, we simply must be a truly loyal trusting subject, well identified to be under YHWH and Him alone.

So the litigant must do both. He must evidentially show the court which God/god and jurisdiction they are claiming, while also having made sure to have broken all ties and binding contracts with the beast system he may have been duped into.

Again, any receiving of benefits or privileges from the beast system constitutes that he is yet a 'legal' part of their system, having accepted the beast benefits.

Now that we can see the way they've hidden all of this, allow me to try to explain how this works, that we are all to choose which jurisdiction or "god/authority" we are to stand under in this life. If we try to stand in both of them at once, the courts will always internally refer its actions to the Bible's Revelation 3:16 and its surrounding text about being lukewarm, doing so secretly for its own benefit, where they too, will take advantage of any individual's ignorance and this lax way of splitting loyalties in having been shown to swear to both jurisdictions, thus the court accepts that Yeshua states that He "spues us out of His mouth", whereby satan gladly takes that spued out soul firmly into his courts as if he is, by automatic default, the new owner or master over them. They are then wards of the state at the least, and perhaps seen as a literal indentured slave by the ignorance of the individual who does not understand how law really works, first under YHWH's biblical documented law, then under the beast's legal system that reversibly mirrors that law to its sadistic benefit. None of us ever had any real law classes in school. We had reading, writing, arithmetic, phys-ed, art, music, etc, etc, but never a literal law class. (and no, "civics" does not count as it was merely a laughable smokescreen to keep us from real law) But did we never wonder why that was? ...that only those who then go on to the more secretive ivy league law schools under carefully regulated legal instruction, then learn real law... ? Well, now you know why it's taught only to those who are more elitist and wickedly willing to keep a lid on what they are learning to cushion their own pocketbooks.

If you have some other god that you follow, be it any other religious entity in our world of all that were created to be distractions from that God of the Bible, and especially if you can't specifically even name your god, nor provide any officially presentable documents of this God's/god's lawfully entrusted jurisdiction over you, then by a first line of default the present corporate worldly courts will not recognize your abstract jurisdictional standing with such an un-named god, let alone be able to identify and acknowledge any such alternate laws or legislative power of protection over you, where the satanists will then [benevolently(?)] ever assume you into their own jurisdictional standing as soon as you (or your parents) might have also "applied you" (begged that you be accepted) into any one or number of their binding adhesion contracts, such as birth certificate, their social security system, driver's license, marriage license, etc. They use these adhesion contracts as verification that you had begged them to be a part of their system.

I'd like to start with showing some of the key points under present United States corporate law, and how it requires such verifications, as even stated by AI here:

Litigants must show evidence for the jurisdiction of a court because subject matter jurisdiction cannot be waived or conferred by party consent; it is the court's constitutional and statutory power to hear a specific type of case, and any judgment issued without it is void.

Federal Question and Diversity: In federal courts, a plaintiff must affirmatively demonstrate jurisdiction via a well-pleaded complaint under 28 U.S.C. Section 1331 (federal law claims) or 28 U.S.C. Section 1332 (diversity of citizenship with over $75,000 in controversy).

Burden of Proof: When jurisdiction is challenged, the party invoking the court's authority bears the burden of proving jurisdictional facts, such as party citizenship or the existence of a federal issue, often by a preponderance of the evidence.

Adversarial Presentation: Under the principle of party presentation, courts generally do not investigate facts independently; litigants must adduce evidence to support their factual allegations, including those necessary to establish the court's power to adjudicate the dispute.

Due Process and Fairness: Disclosure and proof of jurisdictional facts ensure fair procedure, allowing all parties to meet disputed facts through rebuttal evidence and cross examination, thereby preventing surprise and ensuring the tribunal has legitimate authority to bind the parties.

Now again, the above was from an AI response, where I ask the reader to not take it too literally in its details, as their courts nefariously change all the time. I just merely wanted to show all of the various ways and reasons that courts need to know the true jurisdictional authority that any litigant is claiming to stand in, especially in the case I am presenting here, where if a claimed biblical defendant is hoping for a respected full dismissal of any cases regarding any state claimed offense whereby the defendant in our example must not be lukewarm in His stance, meaning anywhere yet on the fence between the two jurisdictions, but must be able to properly show the court to be a faithful subject of YHWH, the God of the Bible and His Son Yeshua, where a court would then be forced to recognize that individual as no longer being a "person" under their corporate jurisdiction.

Under any nations' corporate legal system "franchises" (my own way of illustrating them as businesses), it is expected that all litigants must prove the identity of their God and His authority over them, and expect the court to prove the defendant's beast ties if the defendant has claimed to have been born free or by full naturalization in returning to YHWH's jurisdiction been made free (Born again; Bought back) out of the jurisdiction of the beast court system in order to be determined as outside the jurisdictional authority of the beast system and thus seen as a free man or woman on the land that the beast system cannot lawfully harm or detain.

The beast courts will then also negate any "lukewarm" claims of that god's territorial guardianship and "safe passage" protections of you from any of their "prince of this world" corporate beast agents and their decisions to do as they then please with you, if you are not precisely showing Jesus Christ (Yeshua ha Messhiach) as your now claimed official guardian and lawgiver over you, even if you have expatriated yourself from every previous ties you have had with their beast system. Once again, both this valid jurisdictional named authority YHWH or Jesus Christ, plus your abandonment of their own authority over you must be shown in uncompromised and reasonably genuine ways in order to properly have the released status from their beast system that we might hope to achieve. Yet I caution all to think hard on this, as again, as we have shown here today, YHWH is the One who will ultimately decide this in watching over these courts as well, but only interceding for His truly faithful when they genuinely are loyal subjects and servants for His kingdom jurisdiction, as there is only one "God" (Authority) that, as was even admitted for us today, can satisfy these parameters, which is "Jesus Christ" (Yeshua ha Messhiach) the Son of YHWH, the God of the Bible as I will herein explain to some basic depths in some other ways, opposite their endlessly increasing deceptions come more recently of the satanists' slowly morphing voice of inverting wisdom that they call Artificial Intelligence (AI), which in many ways is already twisting some of these aspects as we try to work around the ones they are already changing on us in these times.

Being that the satanic agents in any of their beast courts (or closed rooms of deliberation) have been shown no other (actual) god that they themselves could recognize as having power of protection reserved for you, e.g., as Moses had such power in being a valued protected subject under YHWH, the God of the Bible, this God specifically named, where then only that God, YHWH, would be given a respected status as a God that must be recognized and revered as a literal God that can have true greater authority than these deceivers have over us, but only if again, such subjects meet the loyalty criteria of that God's written law document, where in YHWH's case, that document is the Bible. And please forgive my redundancy on this key set of qualifiers, but I am one to make sure the critical parts are sent home solidly to be set fast in the memory of those I care about.

Historically, this sudden acknowledgement of recognition of YHWH's jurisdictional power and standing took place largely right after the Red Sea incident when the tyrant minded fast learned the hard way that YHWH not only exists, but was also provably found to be very powerful and in fact dangerously detrimental to their own desires to have people forcefully enslaved under their evil powers.

Prior to the Israelites leaving Egypt, Pharaoh asked Moses, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go." (Exodus 5:2) but this is the KJV translation. In the original Hebrew, we find:

In the Hebrew of Exodus 5:2, the word rendered "the LORD" is YHWH, the Tetragrammaton (Strong's 3068). It appears twice in that verse, first as "Who is YHWH?" and second as "the YHWH" (in "I do not know YHWH").

So in the original Hebrew, Moses and Aaron clearly identified to Pharaoh, by name, the specific God that was giving Pharaoh fair warning to stop oppressing His people and insisting that he let them go. As we know the story, He eventually let them go after YHWH had proven His might in the ten plagues, but not long after, once the Israelites were well away from Egypt, Pharaoh had a change of heart and gathered his army to chase after them where that army fell to their demise at the Red Sea. All the world's tyrants and tyrant wannabees in hearing of this took great heed to Pharaoh's massive humiliation and we today are still able to see how this is why the beast corporate systems use deception rather than force to create slaves of men among them, quietly but nonetheless recognizing anyone who evidentially can claim to be under YHWH, the God of the Bible, and not just an unstudied or intentionally compromised fence sitter, but a man or woman truly separated from the beast's ties and jurisdictional contracts and genuinely walking in the character of being an unquestionable loyal subject of Jesus Christ/Yeshua the Son of YHWH, the God of the Bible.

Here are some of the Biblical parameters upon which those egotistical kings would do better to fear the Bible verses of today. It all begins with the fact that YHWH owns the entire existence we live in, and the more cautious satanists have long recognized and quietly respected this.

According to biblical theology, YHWH is the absolute owner of the earth and everything in it, a status derived from His role as the Creator. This is most famously declared in Psalm 24:1, which states, "The earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness, the world and those who dwell therein."

Since YHWH created the heavens and the earth, He retains exclusive rights to them (Genesis 1:1; Psalm 115:16; Isaiah 45:18). Some false Bible preachers working for the corporate narrative side will say that satan is the owner of this world citing the verses in John chapters 12-16 that says that he is the prince of this world, but that is intended as a metaphorical way to show that he rules over only those who are under his "lesser" worldly jurisdiction only. He has no claim over the spiritual and overall authority of YHWH. The earth and the righteous are still "owned" by YHWH, even though satan has gained a willfully owned following by deception. But let's also not kid ourselves, as YHWH is even the owner over satan and all that satan owns, having thus proven this by being able to cast them all into the lake of fire after all living beings have made their free will choices in this life, where the two jurisdictions are then separated forever by the One who truly owns the entire universe and all existence. Thus holds true the verse, "everything under heaven is Mine" (Psalm 50:10–12; Haggai 2:8; Ezekiel 18:4)

Ownership also implies rulership; YHWH is described as the "great God and great King above all gods" who holds the depths of the earth (Psalm 95:3–5; Daniel 4:35).

And even looking at this from our own mortal standpoint, we can see how men and women are defined as stewards or "strangers and sojourners" rather than actual owners, meaning they hold the land in trust over the care of the land for YHWH's people's use and glory and cannot sell it permanently as if their own (Leviticus 25:23; 1 Corinthians 10:26).

No other religion on the planet has documentation that comes anywhere close to all these details that act as a legitimate law contract, whereby then the Satanists have no fear of any other gods that might be gods in anyone's imaginary passing. In ancient times prior to Pharaoh, all 'wannabe' tyrants were always testing the waters to see how much they could get away with in forcing YHWH's people into bondage. The Red Sea incident was a milestone example to them that YHWH has serious limits to what can be done to those who were loyal to YHWH and had been unfairly taken into captivity or had harm or detainments done to them.

And as another side note, this last aspect of YHWH's people having been detained without cause also applies to police officers today who detain or arrest those who are not in the beast jurisdiction (having not submitted to satan's driving contracts, etc) and had done no crime to have been detained or confined, as those officers too will suffer YHWH's wrath in due time, having accepted the commission of representing their corporate tyrants, thus they will be treated as if outright accomplices in such transgressions against any of YHWH's loyal subjects. But the tyrants don't tell their underlings these things, allowing their various workers to take much of the spiritual judgments as expendable pawns for them. So officers, including many of you that I know and love, you might want to reconsider the jurisdictional situation you have sworn yourselves to as well, where one example might be found in Luke 3:14.

So...

When Pharaoh's onlookers discovered that they could not force people into slavery, being how he was so miraculously defeated at the Red Sea, it became a glaring historical reminder to all that would foolishly try to follow in his footsteps in openly using force to maintain control over any men and women who had not first willingly chosen an indentured servitude or enslavement agreement. Therefore deception was no longer the tyrant's second choice, but they now had to look at coercion and trickery of the mind as their new first basic rule of thumb in creating their slaves from there on, that the satanic or psychopathic ruling class must use in order to avoid the wrath of almighty YHWH over them, thus the entire false law system was created as a single alternate form of law upon those who would gullibly fall for such oppressive societal departures from genuine law.

The ruling elite today therefore must still recognize and fearfully respect YHWH's ultimate original ownership of all things in existence, thus YHWH's sovereignty is as a daunting hovering eagle, ever watching over their every move and they know it, albeit their world is presently beginning to crumble as the many centuries they spent hiding all of this deception is coming down like a house of cards on them, but only for the coming protection and benefit of those of us who had eyes to see who was really God over us and had “not defiled themselves” (Rev 14:4) with satan’s false authority claims in any way (church or state).

The foundational biblical premise is that YHWH owns the earth and everything in it. Any of man’s claims to any land or jurisdiction are secondary and figurative at best and a derivative under YHWH’s ownership by decree of man’s dominion over the earth, notwithstanding the specific moral parameters of conduct also commanded man as the stewards of YHWH’s land. Thus things like property taxes cannot be claimed by Caesar except over those who they had already officially deceived into having accepted their beast jurisdiction over them, of which the more intellectually awake are now today leaving that system the best they can, “coming out from among them to be separate” from this corrupt beast system to then properly stand with all their hearts, souls, minds and strengths, under YHWH’s kingdom, even if at the moment in slow but increasing numbers.

Psalms 24:1 declares, “The earth is the Lord’s, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.” This establishes that YHWH exercises sovereignty not only over the land itself but also over the people dwelling on it. Consequently, any of man’s ownership or alternate willfully chosen jurisdiction is essentially "on loan" from the Creator. The prophet Isaiah reinforces this by noting that God gives breath and spirit to the people, confirming His right of ownership over all inhabitants. NOTE: But this was also to be understood that the people would be expected to be responsible stewards of any such land, both privately and as a nation, something that people today have grown horribly distant from taking seriously, where we also see the verses that speak of how YHWH will punish those who not only ignore and replace His law, but (as another side note), also punish those who destroy the earth, which would include those who are not good stewards of their lands (“small or great”, meaning from the huge corporate manufacturers that carelessly pollute, all the way down to the lowly shop owner who defiles the land in ways that were done for selfish purposes rather than care for his town’s environment, etc.):

“And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.” (Revelation 11:18)

Thus the entire “legalese” system and all its many facets of deception were then more strategically gerrymandered over the centuries to both cleverly hoodwink the masses and also keep themselves safely from the previous forced ways that they knew would bring YHWH’s wrath down upon them again. It is under all of these better seen vantage points that many of us can now see just how they run their beast machinery with such oppressive ways while being somewhat gingerly respectful of this God in also staying safely distant from any lawfully understood infringements of offense against this stronger God.

They then had to face the reality that as long as they remained in a non-forceful approach of appealing to the masses in their deceptive way of gaining their slaves, they could keep their system alive and perhaps growing. So of those who were legitimately proving to be those respectful of YHWH as His jurisdictionally chosen people, who had themselves willingly chosen Him as their God, were then only able to be seen as potential slaves, and only so long as they are gained as slaves by their own free will, i.e., “indentured servants” as the Bible calls it, being slaves of their own choosing. Of course to accomplish this, the Satanists could obviously not tell these people the truth of their intentions in any openly clear way, but could only find ways to use complicated deceptive means by which to “entice them” into begging their overlords into being accepted into their system of society. This is done through a very clever way of pretending to be benevolent protectors while another arm of them (as today we see in Hollywood as one example) would warn them of what they would be really getting into in reality. The alt media voices today unknowingly call this predictive programming, although this was not the first intention of Hollywood and the media realm, but was actually done to more so cover their backsides against any heavenly claims that they had not fairly warned the people of their plans. You see, the Bible calls us to be honest in any and all contracts of agreements that we might want to make with others. Which is why we can nullify some of the beast adhesion contracts by using the term, “void for vagueness”, etc. But just as one “legal” example of this “hidden in plain sight” method of hiding such wording in places that should more readily be seen by the readers, inserting confusion to play games with the mind, consider the way Article VI of the U.S. Constitution was written. Here is the actual wording:

“All Debts contracted and Engagements entered into, before the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States."

Notice how these three paragraphs are to explain this particularly listed "Article", and how in the second paragraph there lies much said between and around the words, "This Constitution" and the words, "shall be the supreme law of the land", which in and of itself helps to allow the average mind to wander when reading all the wording in between, and although I could spend several pages describing all the other distractions that cause the biblically minded to not notice the actual intent of just this one cleverly written Article, it is nonetheless typical of how they do other things to make such documents so vaguely described as well, but it is also how they've used Hollywood, and books, and popular authors over past and present to show the real intentions of the cruelties and enslavements that they are hoping to achieve in us. Then by allowing the public to think of such writings or movies as "science fiction" or mere entertainment they then come around with voter registrations, citizenship papers, tax forms, social security applications, etc, all seeking our signature (the sign of our nature) as a written oath of our acceptance where the public is then seduced into actually publicly announcing their desire to be a part of this government that is there to replace "Jesus Christ".

These modern serpents in the garden had, by legalese slight of hand, slowly changed the original America that was previously running largely under that other jurisdictional document called the Bible, into a whole new corporate system of pure deception which they then called "The United States of America", a mirrored "satanized" version of our previous biblically governed nation that today is not biblical at all. It was a very clever trick that was pulled, beginning with the coup of the Constitutional convention (see Gary North's great book called, "Conspiracy in Philadelphia"; free pdf at our website) where they were on their way to re-enslaving their masses that had escaped from them in Europe following the reformation, but now had a very crafty way of also keeping themselves safely distant from YHWH's original jurisdiction over the people. They had successfully pulled the wool over hundreds of thousands of early American eyes in the original thirteen states, and just as in the time's of Jeremiah where the oppressing ruling class were using the excuse that they hadn't forced anyone, but had found these people to be eagerly wanting to join them in this oppressive system via their own lusts on this new "materialistically gainful(?)" way of living. They now had the carrot on a stick governance system they needed, much like the fruit that the serpent had enticed Eve with in the garden, to then begin sucking this less biblically educated and thereby more gullible America into their beast system that was in its infancy in those days. They had found a suitable mixture of deceptions to further seduce a once righteous America that had originally been going by the Bible as their literal law book, now voluntarily going by their own law (legal) document, called the Constitution. In a metaphor of lost sheep where mountains mean governments in Jeremiah chapter 50, we see it written this way:

50:6 My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace.

The oppressors among them could then say in their defense much the same as it says in the very next verse, being verse 7, 50:7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

Notice that YHWH knew this was going to happen, just as it did to Judah under Babylonian captivity in Jeremiah's time. In verse seven the beast agents are again saying, "We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers." If I might have the reader's permission to put it in other words, this could be read, "We did nothing wrong, they came to us seeking our permission that they might join us, even though we made it very openly displayed and clear (through our earlier writers and then Hollywood, etc) what our own chosen lifestyles and purposes were aiming at. Regardless, they signed up against YHWH and His laws forbidding such allegiances, against the hope of their fathers, who told them not to be unequally yoked with unbelievers. They begged to be accepted into our system, where we felt it to be un-neighborly to not let them join us."

Can we not see this verse in its textual surroundings saying the same today as it did back in Jeremiah's time? Have today's Babylonian satanists not tricked us right back into the very same captivity that YHWH saved us from way back then?

And so what does the very next verse say?

50:8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks. (in other words, be brave)

50:9 For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

And so since the time of the Red Sea blunder that these elitists had learned from under YHWH's mighty judgment, we could see how the satanic side has learned to wait until we had always at least partially walked away from our God (like Rome accomplished in 45 B.C with the change of the calendar as one example of this) to then also willfully become ensnared in even just one binding contract in their own system, that they could then officially take a fully justified jurisdictional captivity of us as their slaves by such "lukewarm" default in every situation like that, and this is the same history that we are writing ourselves into this time around.

But as many more of us see today, the Satanists themselves were only able to run their own globally expected jurisdictional system in a spiritually parallel and optionally presented system opposite that of YHWH's kingdom, while carefully not interfering with those who were not open to being fooled away from that God's care and who were thereby intelligent enough to then avoid all of their legalese distractions to wisely stay firmly loyal to this God YHWH. In laymen's terms, they learned that YHWH would also not interfere with their own system, so long as they only always approached others to join them using the legal construct we see today known as "offer and acceptance", a phrase that even Klauss Schwab was famed for quoting just a few years ago. All they need do is offer, and we foolishly accept. Just as Eve was beguiled in the garden.

These wickedly devious Satanists knew to be more careful than pharaoh had been in "forcing" his Israelite guests into slavery. They, being ever aware of Pharaoh's humiliating defeat at the Red Sea, were much more watchful of themselves and their subordinates over following centuries, where they then expected to slowly gather the souls that they themselves would then help to create through endless serpent-like deceptions in the masses becoming the world's ever increasing “Scripturally and lawfully uneducated slaves” of each progressive generation. They would then draw them into their clutches via gradually accumulative “deceptions and temptations” that would eventually turn the overall picture of man’s reality upside down in all who would fall for their many endless lies. But even though we can see now how they came very close to achieving this goal, the satanists are now starting to sweat that the world is instead fast waking back up to their evil plan to enslave and kill all who had unwisely left YHWH’s law. These death gods could then do so without repercussions from YHWH because they had gained a “wardship” over these people in their having abandoned their God, YHWH. The elite gained the trust of many souls who had otherwise previously trusted only in the God that promised His faithful subjects a safe place of care, all of such people now being killed today (by countless murder weapons, slow kill and fast alike, respectively with things like the jabs and DEW fires), all such doomed people having by their own free will, swapped YHWH’s wholesome lifestyles and protections over time for the lustful materialistic gains they were all to be drawn into under the many various false jurisdictional sub departments that the growing ruling classes were increasingly creating and tempting them with.

I have been long learning to understand this overall picture for roughly three decades, my friends. And in all these years I must have run into thousands of people who told me they believed in a higher power, but either were not sure who this higher power was, or those who had no name for him, or even that he was just some extraterrestrial power, force or frequency of some kind and not a real being with a documented identifiable character that we could genuinely say we were made in the actual image of, let alone by name identify the actual God of the Bible, lock stock and barrel.

All such minds then prove to myself and a growing number of others that billions have been successfully lulled into the main and massive “holding pen” of satan’s illusionary jurisdiction, thus hiding the only thing he needed to do, which was to get them away from any actual knowledge and accomplished trust of the real God that could otherwise still have had lawful jurisdictional guardianship over them had they not followed their lusts down any of those broad paths and false rabbit holes that satan had created to do that very thing by.

It is then come to my attention in a way I cannot describe to any of you in any more easily grasped and summarized words, that the jurisdictional issue I described thus far has to be addressed just as that Bible suggests, respected in our hearts in so many biblically qualifying, and thus covenantally binding ways of accepting the genuine reality of a spiritual jurisdictional contest between just two kingdoms that are clearly mentioned in Scripture, being just YHWH's authority and jurisdiction or satan's authority and jurisdiction. We have all been given a free will to "choose ye this day who ye will serve". We are to choose between any number of satan's compartmentalized fake realities under his own imitation and cruelly twisted but jurisdictionally official ownership, or... YHWH's simple narrow road to His loving Kingdom. All roads of rebellion against YHWH's name, authority or character are created as distractions by satan and his minions, where all such roads lead to eternal damnation, with no recourse of protection in this time either, at least not from the God that such souls had rejected and rebelled against. So again, and even if by default, we can summarize it this way:

All claimed authorities over us other than YHWH/Jesus/Yeshua and the written document called the Bible, will always default to satan's overall jurisdiction. No exceptions. No other safety nets. No imaginary excuses.

And so as some of us have been growing to better understand, now having seen satan's imitation "legal" world and his mirrored images of the true law of YHWH, that satan under a plan of deception cannot use as his own, we can see how even the title of such a system cannot be the same title of "law", but had to be given a substitute system name of "legal". Yet over time the two terms have been deceptively taught to the masses as if synonymous terms that could both apply equally to all people of the world, even when only one fits one heart or the other. There are just two sides of this spiritual jurisdictional fence. There can be no lukewarm in this area of life either, otherwise again, we are back to the default that Yeshua Himself authored for those "He never knew", being the Lukewarm who had not truly trusted Him and the Father.

Now this overall picture of there being these two jurisdictions that are literally more spiritual than many of us may have ever thought before and thereby may sound to be "way out there" in a manner of speaking, but I assure you that as I now hope to begin spelling it out via Scripture, that all of your past attempts to have previously put this yet deeper puzzle together, will here today start to actually take on a form in your minds much as it has been doing so in mine over several decades.

This writing could become a much more massively large book describing all the verses and empirical historical evidences that show much more than I have already summarily shared here, but I am keeping this one short as just a trailer or maybe a first edition of sorts, as I want to just give you folks a mere appetizer taste of what this even greater jurisdictional depth has as evidences in both historic evidences and more importantly the Scriptures, hoping to at least start to bring more folks out of the false realities they have been drawn into under very little fault of their own, at least now that we see the enormity of this deception. We now, in seeing these things, have a responsibility to look back, each individual for himself, to then ascertain what all of the truth is that might affect each of our individual lives in every part of life that they might have been conditioned into during their youth, that might be harming their ability to see the true reality we are all genuinely here to “study to shew ourselves approved” under.

I hope that now more of us can see why we might have had so much frustration with our courts and governments not working with us, especially over offenses against us that, to us, seemed so cut and dried as if undeniable criminal acts we’ve suffered, where perhaps now we can better see just how much deception has been pulled over our eyes. We can now more understandably want out of this quagmire that they had us so confused and frustrated by, where many just fell into situations like what we see in the Asche experiment, as how most people just followed the crowd trying to fit in with the world, rather than speaking the truth of what they saw and actually taking the time against a worldly consensus as we have today, to actually study and identify how they had done all of this to us.

But as a way to try and discourage folks from just following such crowds that the elite want us to follow, to then begin a more satisfying and greater educated exit from this study, where I might dutifully warn us of our fast growing consensus trust of the many AI sources out there, I would compassionately want to warn everyone just how badly AI is being trained to do more of the same and gradually steer us ever further away from much of what the Bible really says.

In testing AI to see how it would answer, and having asked it about a dozen questions related to the importance of identifying the name of the King or Lord as defining which lawful jurisdiction any litigant genuinely stands under, it blew my mind as to just how hard AI was trying to play down the entire name importance even blurring the lines between “lawful and legal” so much that I had to continually remind it to keep from referring to corporate law (as it was acting as if it was desperate to infer that the corporate “legal” was the only system of accepted rules for society), and it also kept insinuating that satan had no power over those who had sold their souls to him, actually falsely saying that they were bought by Christ’s blood and that God owned their souls, etc:

But here’s how I had simply narrowed it down to this question,

If individuals have sold their souls to satan, are they not under satan's jurisdiction that he might do as he pleases because he then owns them?

AI then wrote (and I will address its answer parsed in segments here):

No, The concept of a binding contract where satan "owns" a person is a folklore motif (e.g., the legend of Faustus) rather than a biblical doctrine.

What? That once most commonly understood fact of Scripture is now "a folklore"? Yikes!

But now note how AI even used the word "person" in there, where I had used the word individual. If they keep returning the reader to the corporate morphed language side, then the (George Orwell 1984 newspeak) language can be all that much easier adjusted to then also help steer the reader ever further away from the real issue of jurisdiction as well.

It also added this statement:

THE PRICE PAID: For believers, the New Testament emphasizes that they were bought with a price" (the blood of Christ), making them God's property (1Corinthians 6:19-20) No counter transaction can override this divine purchase.

This is a straight out blatant slight-of-hand distraction from the question above by which I had specifically stated that I was asking about those who had "sold their souls to satan", not those who were "believers". Can we not see the huge valley between such a soul's intentions in that alone? And yet millions of so called "Christians" are going by AI for all of their answers, not even aware enough to see such glaringly placed deceptions put before them.

This programmed machine also took its deception further with this next line:

Metaphor, Not Metaphysics: "Selling ones soul" is a metaphor for voluntary submission to sin and rebellion against God, not a legal transfer of title.

And even after all my more specifically delivered lines that I wanted lawful not legal responses, there they go again with switching our minds to the "legal" realm, not the lawful which is then so obviously clear how they are doing their best to keep us focused on corporate terminology via such suggestive intimations. In one response AI had even tried to rebuke me in that my asking to keep things lawfully framed rather than legally, should be seen this way:

The idea that modern courts operate under a "legal" (corporate/maritime) system while biblical courts operate under a "lawful" (common law/divine) system based on naming is a modern conspiracy theory, often associated with the sovereign citizen movement.

How much more “in your face” can their narrative control be seen here? They are even then trying to embarrass, rebuke and even vilify the questioner rather than simply stay on topic with the question(s). Along with four distractions I saw, they use at least two intentionally created vilification terms in just this one sentence alone to try and discourage such conversations seeking these truths. “Conspiracy theorists” was a term now proven to have been invented by the CIA after people began questioning Arlen Specter’s Warren commission report of the “Magic single bullet theory” on the JFK assassination, myself even having been head to head in a private meeting with Specter in Scott township over that many years ago, but they generated that term to gaslight the majority of the nation’s gullible into helping to vilify us as kooks and tin hat fruitcakes. The second carefully phrased term is “sovereign citizen movement”, which is used to try and do the same, and label those who want to return to our original Biblical jurisdiction, as if we too, are kooks and tin hat fruitcakes, or perhaps even evil “enemies of the state”, (if you want to take it to their most hoped for extreme).

The Bible actually has several places, especially two, where the word “conspiracy” does exactly what it should really stand for, where it warns that there will be men who, acting in an actual conspiratorial fashion, are literally going to try and dissuade people from YHWH’s law and faithfulness. See these two examples:

Jeremiah 11:9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

11:10 They are turned back to the iniquities (lawlessness) of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11:11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them. (and this is because they waited too late to obey Him.)

11:12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

And this one:

Ezekiel 22:25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravaging the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

22:26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

22:27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravaging the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

Now you can read the rest of the above Ezekial passage which sounds almost to the penny what is really taking place today, but let it be known that AI is being trained to turn the tables on us in the very unlawful jurisdictional way that I am trying to save us from the lies of here.

In that same answer AI also referred to the story of Job which was NOT someone who sold their soul to satan, but was totally the opposite type of soul, being YHWH's most loyally put forth faithful servant!, where AI had actually said that:

“satan operates only within the boundaries God allows (seen clearly in Job 1-2, where satan must request permission to afflict Job). He has no independent “jurisdiction” where he can act outside God’s sovereign oversight.”

AI is literally turning the clearest biblical concepts upside down. And I have PDFs of these responses as well, btw, for those doubting my honesty here.

But yes, this last one above takes the cake folks. AI is turning the entire story on its head. Job was again, nowhere near any man who could have sold his soul to satan, in fact satan had to ask permission to hurt him precisely BECAUSE He was under YHWH’s jurisdiction and care as a most faithful servant, not one who had sold his soul to the devil! AI lied that satan “has no independent jurisdiction”, as again, it was not even implied that Job was under satan’s jurisdiction in the first place for AI to even use Job as any kind of example in my having asked about those who had sold their souls to satan. AI came up with the Job example on its own, clearly to flip the contrast I was trying to test it in.

Can we not see how these circuit board monsters are only spouting what the satanists have always spouted through their false TV evangelists and Jesuit church preachers all these years?

They started out allowing AI to tell a lot of truth in a huge amount of areas to gain the trust of their already gullible masses, but must be getting desperate already in pushing AI to so quickly lie about so many things that I have been testifying to in some writings as of late. I would posit to you folks that the speed at which they are now training AI to lie to us, might actually be a good sign showing that perhaps we are waking up so thoroughly and reaching so many people so well that the wicked elite are having trouble keeping them deceived as of late, at least not as confidently as they must have hoped for just a few years back.

But after seeing this aspect as being quite hopeful, and getting back to the subject at hand, now look at just a few for example out of over forty verses we could print here saying roughly the same thing about the need to glorify and call upon Him by name, especially when we are in need:

...observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, YHWH.... (Deuteronomy 28:58) ...I will publish the name of YHWH.... (Deuteronomy 32:3) Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, YHWH of hosts is the God of Israel.... (1 Chronicles 17:24) Give unto YHWH the glory due unto his name.... (Psalm 29:2) His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun ... Thy name, O YHWH, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O YHWH, throughout all generations. (Psalm 135:13) ...he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name. (Psalm 111:9) ...pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. (Matthew 6:9) And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. (Revelation 14:1) ...his servants shall serve him ... and his name shall be in their foreheads. (Revelation 22:3-4)

In contrast there is great wrath determined for them that call not upon His name:

Pour out thy wrath upon ... the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name. (Psalm 79:6) Pour out thy fury ... upon the families that call not on thy name.... (Jeremiah 10:25) But I had pity for mine holy name

... I do ... this for ... mine holy name's sake ... I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen.... (Ezekiel 36:21-23) If ye ... will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith YHWH of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you.... (Malachi 2:2)

Those wishing to be protected by YHWH against this beast system are called to not just come out from among the beast system and the name (authority) of the corporate government agencies, but we are also told to call upon YHWH by name and trust in Him that once we are totally out of satan's jurisdiction in having GENUINELY been "bought with a price", we will then be protected just as a good King would protect His loyal subjects.

But the bottom line is that identifying the God/Authority that one says they worship and trust the jurisdictional laws and safekeeping of, is absolutely key to where they will ultimately end up after this chaos is brought to its planned conclusion.

You simply must be able to unashamedly and boldly identify which authority it is that you trust your soul to.

Again, many say that they think there is a higher power but cannot name or describe the laws or documents of this god that they also say is not the same god as the one of the Bible. In such cases YHWH, the God of the Bible will be left to allow that heart a life time (long or short) to better ascertain which authority they truly fall under in their choices in life, and if they are forever on the fence, then by default they then fall automatically to satan's side as to where that soul goes when they die. YHWH gave all of us a free will out of His love for all of us, but because of that love, cannot subject those who truly yearn for a world where those who will not cooperate with such a system of love under His name, to have to live an eternity with those who had chosen to stay in their contradictory ways that would only be an eternal continuation of the very same good vs evil world that many of us want to be rescued from.

So again, this writing was just to wet the appetite of those who may think they are somehow safe in just using their imaginations rather than "studying to shew themselves approved unto YHWH, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed (of having not being able to even name their God, rather...) rightly dividing the word of truth." 2 Timothy 2:15

And just a few verses later Paul writes this to Timothy:

Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 2Timothy 2:19

Or... let everyone professing the jurisdiction of Yeshua (under YHWH) depart from satan's default jurisdiction containing all alternate ways of imagining a less serious God who otherwise responsibly disciplines His children to love one another.

This entire global situation is because an entire world has abandoned the real identity and character of the God that gave us all the life and breath that we have, where this is an ever intensifying wrath upon all of our nations and societies who have yet to study harder in search of the reality of our world and Creator and thereby reform our lives to the specifically named YHWH, the God that truly loved us so much that He sent His own Son to die for us.

Are we grateful? ...or are we hoping that by crossing our fingers we can imagine a better god to come rescue us?

There's even an internal affection when using the name. Does one truly think intimately or even love their god if they are not even warmly calling that god by name?

AND...

As one final note, please remember that people like Donald Trump, Xi Jinping, Anthony Albanese, Putin, Macron, Netanyahu, etc, etc, are all just as lowly as you and I in this war between YHWH and satan. They are just pawns under satan's distractions against you. No matter how much they want to elevate themselves, they are nothings in this biblical contest between good and evil where we are all being tested as to who will own our souls when all is said and done. We are ALL taking an exam of how well we are nurturing and developing our own moral characters. That is the entire purpose of this temporal life we are in. So....

WHAT IS "GOVERNMENT" ANYWAY? ESSENTIALLY TODAY IT'S THE SYSTEM OF SOCIOPATHIC, PSYCHOPATHIC, MICRO MANAGING "CONTROL FREAK" PEOPLE THAT WE GIVE OUR RESPONSIBILITIES TO, SIMPLY BECAUSE WE DON'T WANT TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANYTHING IN OUR OWN COMMUNITIES OURSELVES.

I sometimes like to try and narrow down my work into the smallest, most memorable nutshell of a sound bite that I can think of, where my own more recent super condensed version of this writing, for those of you who are working on helping one another to seek, pray for, and preach YHWH's kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven...

"We don't need the ultra complexity of understanding man's law systems to explain the simplicity of YHWH's law: If one knows the original, he needn't spend much time examining and leaving the imitation."

Blessings and peace to all who are safely travelling well within the narrow jurisdiction of YHWH and His Son Yeshua ha Messhiach (Jesus the Christ),

In YHWH's law of love that was cast in stone for our own protection,
